

Oscar Party Benefits St. Patrick Center

Event Raises Over $5,000 for Homeless Services Organization

ST. LOUIS, MO -- March 10, 2009 -- David Hults, President of activ:8 career coaching, and Brad Fuller hosted a special Oscar Night Party to benefit the St. Patrick Center on February 21, 2009 at their home in Sunset Hills. The event raised some $5,100 to benefit the Center, the largest provider of homeless services in Missouri.

All guests were treated like “stars”. They were driven to the house by chauffeured limousine, walked down a red carpet, and posed for photos in front of a large Oscar statue. Attendees also enjoyed an Academy Awards trivia contest, dinner and entertainment. Several guests were given Oscar like statues and special prizes. Over 100 persons attended the event. A silent auction highlighted the evening benefitting the St. Patrick Center.

“The party was a great success and benefitted an excellent local organization,” Hults said. “The money will go to serve the homeless in St. Louis and the surrounding area. Everyone had a great time and we look forward to hosting other charitable events in the not too distant future.”
